Trotwood Chamber's 16th Annual Dinner and Business Recognition is scheduled for Thursday, November 9, 2017 at Friendship Village, 5790 Denlinger Road. We will be recognizing our small and large businesses as well as new members joining our Chamber in 2017. If you know a business you want to nominate or be recognized, please submit the following information to the Chamber:

1. Name of Business
2. Address of Business
3. Phone Number/Email Address
4. Contact for the Business
5. Number of Years in Business
6. Why are you nominating this business/individual
7. Background information for the business you are nominating
8. How has this business or individual made a difference

To receive the small or large business award, you must be a member of Trotwood Chamber. We ask that you submit the information to Trotwood Chamber of Commerce, 5790 Denlinger Road, Suite 4011, Trotwood OH 45426. Deadline for submission is Monday, October 23, 2017.

Those businesses eligible for nomination to receive small and large businesses of the year are included in this newsletter.

Your executive director will represent the Chamber at Miami Valley Military Affairs Association starting October 2017. This organization is composed of multiple chambers and local elected officials who work for the support of the military organizations located in the Miami Valley.

Trotwood Chamber of Commerce participated in the Trotwood Parade Saturday, October 7....our own Bruce Kettle participated as well. Representation from Trotwood Schools, State, Montgomery County, City, local officials and other participated. The weather was beautiful and everyone had a lovely time.

Marie Battle, CAP, Executive Director

Adrienne L. Heard

Adrienne Heard, President of the Trotwood-Madison Board of Education, will participate in one of the nation's premier educational events, the 62nd Annual Ohio School Boards Association Capital Conference & Trade Show at the Greater Columbus Convention Center November 12-14.

Before a workout—drink about 2 cups of water (16 oz.) 2-3 hours before you begin

During a workout—drink about 1 cup of water (8 oz.) every 10-20 minutes.

After a workout—drink 1 cup (8 oz.) of water within 30 minutes after you finish

Staying hydrated helps your heart and muscles work more efficiently. Plain and simple water is best when you exercise at a moderate or high intensity for up to an hour. Tip: Chill your water. Drinking cold water may help boost metabolism. Healthy Living Newsletter Fall 2017.

Exercise your privilege—vote Tuesday, November 7!
